About This Game

About:
iREC is a first person atmospheric horror game with puzzle elements.
The player needs to investigate the location and collect evidence without drawing attention.
Inspired by the environment of Outlast, iREC presents moments of tension, with an incredible atmosphere of terror.

Synopsis:
The game begins when a narcotics police officer gets a hint from an informant.
No time to ask for a search warrant, he decides to act alone and invade the place, a logistics company called AtlasLog.
During the investigation, he discovers that the company is fake,
and is involved in drug trafficking, filmmaking, among others. He gets stuck in the place, and looking for clues, discovers the biggest secret behind everything.

At first, the puzzles were somewhat hard to understand but then you get the hang of it and its not that bad and kind of clever. But then i was stuck in the final hall for about 45min trying to understand what to do next, having no clues on how to continue. I managed to finish the game but not in a way that i would want to. Meaning i had to look up for certain code in a youtube walkthrough, and the guy too said to not ask him where he find it, and i hated that i had to look it up somewhere else.(BTW, i played it twice, the first playthrough i gave up finding clues in the hallway, the 2nd time i got it from a youtube walkthrough) I like hard to crack puzzles but lurking around in a hallway for 45min and not finding any clue... its kind of dissappointing. I wouldnt call it a horror game because of 1 and a half semi-jumpscares. i dont mind the graphics but it would be great if interactions werent buggie.
Overall i give this game 5\/10.
